

THE MODERN DAY

Proverbs 31 Woman Manifesto

Building a life of purpose

I Know My Worth

I am priceless. My value was set before the foundations of the earth — not determined by status, applause, or approval.

I Pursue Excellence, Not Perfection

I show up with intentionality, passion, and integrity. I don't chase flawless outcomes; I commit to full-hearted living.

I Am A Creator And A Builder

I don't just consume; I create. I plant, invest, and build a legacy — whether through my business, career, home, or calling.

I Am Financially Wise

I honor God through wise stewardship. I think generationally. I make, multiply, and manage resources with vision and strategy.

I Wear Strength And Dignity Like Armor

I do not shrink for comfort. I walk tall, clothed in divine strength and unshakable dignity, unmoved by fear of the future.

I Speak Life

My words are powerful. I speak wisdom, I teach truth, I lift others. My mouth is a wellspring of life, not a weapon of destruction.

I Play The Long Game

I understand that real fruit takes time. I build what lasts. I plant seeds of faithfulness, knowing my impact will outlive me.

I Live Beyond Surface-Level Beauty

Charm fades. Trends die. I cultivate a soul of substance, a spirit of reverence, and a heart that beats after God.

I Am A Force For Good

My presence changes the atmosphere. I carry light into dark places. I build what is broken. I rise — and I lift others with me.

Declare

I am a Modern Proverbs 31 Woman. I build, lead, nurture, and empower. I am fearless in faith, ferocious in purpose, and faithful to the call on my life.
