

What's In Your Hand?

A Reflection & Prayer Prompt for Women Ready to Trust God

A Reflection

In the stillness of the morning, God's question to Moses speaks to me:
"What's in your hand?"

Too often, I've chased more, missing the simple gift God has already placed before me. But I am learning to see the value in the ordinary. I am learning to yield and trust that what I have—however simple—is enough.

Exodus 4:2

The Lord said to him, "What is that in your hand?" "A staff," he replied.

JOURNALING PROMPT

Take a moment to reflect:

What has God placed in your hand that you've called 'not enough'? Consider your talents, skills, resources, relationships, and experiences. Are you overlooking something valuable because you're focused on what you think you need, rather than what you already have? Spend some time listing these things out, then consider how you could use one of them to bless others or step into a God-given calling.

Prayer

Dear God,

Lord, open my eyes. Help me to recognize the simple thing You have placed in my hand, and to stop striving for more.

Use it to bring You glory.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

May this devotional encourage you to recognize and embrace the gifts God has placed in your hand. Trust Him to use them in ways you never thought possible!
